CSEFEL PYRAMID - A DEEPER DIVE INTO NURTURING RESPONSIVE RELATIONS

SUPPORTING CHALLENGING BEHAVIORS

Emily N. Stewart Consulting

WHAT

This workshop delves into the CSEFEL Pyramid with a focus on nurturing responsive relationships and supporting challenging behaviors in early childhood education. Participants will gain insights into enhancing executive function, conflict resolution, and cooperative skills, with an emphasis on positive teacher-child interactions and play-based learning. Highlighting developmentally appropriate practices, the session will address the individual needs of children and strategies for fostering social behaviors through environmental adaptation and emotional support. Additionally, the workshop will explore effective approaches to supporting challenging behaviors, including setting goals, gathering data, understanding behavior functions, and implementing comprehensive behavior support plans for sustainable success.
